Why Females Suffer in Health.
THE MARRIED WOMAN'S Private Medical Companion.
BY DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, PROFESSOR OF DISEASES OF WOMEN.
One Hundred Editions (500,000) Sold, pp. 250.
A standard work of established reputation, found in the libraries of the most distinguished physicians of New York, Philadelphia, and other cities, and sold by the principal bookellers in the United States.
Every woman can here discover, by comparing her own symptoms with those described in the book, the cause of her complaint, and be spared much anxiety and suffering, as well as the unpleasantness of making known to, or making inquiry of, a physician in respect to the numerous ailments to which she is subjected. The side taken by the author is entirely in favor of the female system, or from premenstrual (falling of the womb) or from aftermenstrual (falling of the womb) will each find in its pages the means of prevention, amelioration, and relief.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

Another Letter from Lexington.

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 6th, 1855.

Masses, Editors: The Democracy of the State assembled in convention at this city yesterday in large numbers. The weather during the day was exceedingly inclement, preventing the attendance of thousands, who would otherwise have been present. Hon. S. A. Douglas led off in a speech of great power and eloquence, which, for vastness of research, compactness of argument, profundity of thought, and massive compactness, have never been equaled. Senator Pugh, of Ohio, in the evening delivered a sound, patriotic, and eloquent speech. He is a powerful orator, and his remarks told with effect upon the crowd.

Lieut. Gov. Willard made one of his powerful addresses. He is a man who, whenever he speaks, touches the popular heart, and causes it to beat responsive to the promptings of his own.

Col. Preston, of Louisville, made a most felicitous speech, full of argument and glowing with patriotism and eloquence. Col. Preston appeared bold and undiminished. He declared his full determination to stand by the Democracy now and hereafter. It was remarked by Gov. Powell, after Col. Preston had concluded, that he would rather have delivered that speech than be a member of Congress for forty years; no wonder the Know-Nothing, finding it impossible to resist the eloquence of Col. Preston, had resorted to brass-knuckles to defeat him.

Col. Talbot, member elect to Congress from the Fourth District, made a glorious speech, and like the gallant Col. enrolled himself in the Democratic party.

At night, the meeting assembled in the Upper Market-house, where the banner prepared by the Democracy of Louisville, for the people of John county, was presented in a chaste and eloquent speech, by Wm. P. Jarvis.

After the presentation of the banner, Major Breckinridge was loudly called for, and delivered a masterly address. He was followed by that old wheel-horse of the Democracy, Elijah Nuttall.

Ex-Gov. Powell wound up the proceedings of the day. His speech was replete with sound and patriotic sentiment, and his remarks, as did those of all the speakers, called forth enthusiastic shouts of approbation.

The resolutions adopted by the Convention are broad, liberal, and national. They reaffirm the time-honored principles of the Democracy, including the Kansas-Nebraska bill—denouncing the recent Know-Nothing outrages in your city, approving the course of the National Administration and the administration of Gov. Powell, and recommending the different counties of the State to take prompt and energetic measures to secure a full attendance of the Democracy at the State Convention, to be held in Frankfort on the 8th of January next.

Perhaps never, in the political history of Kentucky, have her citizens had the privilege of listening to higher efforts of oratory. The exponents of Democracy of Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, all communing together—all bending their energies to uphold civil and religious liberty, to cement the union of the States, to crush out Know-Nothingism and Abolitionism. It is a glorious cause, worthy of such champions as Douglas, Pugh, Willard, Preston, Powell, and Breckinridge.

When can Know-Nothingism—when dare Know-Nothingism—bring its champions from the free States, as the Democracy have done? The Democracy are united—bold, confident, and from present indications will sweep the country at the next Presidential elections.

The meeting adjourned in fine spirits, with the full determination to redeem Kentucky.
